

CONTINUOUS INTERNAL ASSESSMENT

Continuous Internal Assessment is the important assessment component for evaluating the students academic progress.

The Continuous internal assessment evaluation of the students is an integral part of the teaching-learning process. The students have been encouraged to study continuously for the improvement of their performance through continuous internal assessment. A continuous internal assessment system in semester system is spread through the duration of course and is done by the teacher teaching the course.

Continuous Internal assessment components are designed in such a way that the faculty can monitor the student learning & development and intervene wherever required. The faculty shares the outcome of each internal evaluation component with the students, soon after the evaluation, and guide the students for betterment. Continuous Internal Assessment System (CIA) is also one of the important component of the outcome based education system. Some of the outcomes of the course can be achieved through continuous internal assessment.

The question papers for Continuous internal assessment test prepared by the teaching faculty in the view of the students achieve the outcomes of the respective course. The continuous internal assessment marks entered in the software by the respective faculty and it is subsequently used for End Semester examination result processing.
